Then came the time to hand out the amateur of the year award out this award went to Mike Sercer WA9FDO for his work he does and his willingness to help people and taping the newsline and running it on the nets.

Congratulations to all the award winners.

Our guest speaker was Josh Laycock, he works at the Speedway, he told us about the history on the track like in 1908 Carl Fisher, James Allison, Frank Wheeler, and Arthur Newby was the first ones whom started and financed the track 1909 the Speedway was founded it was setup for year-round testing , it consists of 328 Acres the track is 2 miles each corner is 1/8 of a mile, here are some other facts about the track , Carl Fisher had Hot Air Balloons, June 5 Hoosier Handicap Balloon Race, August 20 the race track was paved with 3.2 million bricks and such named the Brickyard and it took 63 days to complete, in 1911 the races purse was $27,650 and went to Ray Harroun.

Carl fisher in 1927 sold the Indianapolis Motor Speedway to Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker in turn he sold the track to Tony Hulman in late 1945. The 500 race was held on Memorial day since

1911 except during 1917, 1918, 1942 thur 1945 during the times of the war.

!961 Ray drove his old car #11 all original around the track the total speed for the 500 track was 74.06 miles and it took 6 hours, 1929 the golf course was done,

ABC took the track events of the race National Broadcast in 1965, 1986 went to live broadcast.

If interested in more facts on the 500 track they have a facts book out.

Also Nascar started in 1994 and Jeff Gordon won and in 2000 was the Formula 1 and Schumacker won it, and in 2004 the formula 1 will move to June 18 and 19.

Josh gave us a lot of facts about the track and we thank him for coming to our dinner and giving us all different facts about the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Track.

Would like to also remind you all about our Web Site which is www.indyradioclub.org please check it out.

Also would like to wish Max Kennedy W9EHY to get well soon.

Also thanks to Bob Marschel thanks for doing the newsletter again for the year 2004.

Hope to see you all at the next meeting on January 9, 2004 till then see you all next year.
